

Dear Mr. Mitchell,

Lawdragon recently selected you as one of the National Finalists for our annual guide to the Leading Lawyers in America.

The Lawdragon guides offer the most elite designations available to any practicing U.S. lawyer, and uniquely include corporate counsel, plaintiff and defense lawyers, judges and academicians. Approximately 3,000 lawyers are awarded the status of National Finalist each year out of the 1.1 million U.S. lawyers. We selected the National Finalists (also known as the Lawdragon 3000) from more than 25,000 nominees who were identified through independent research and online submissions, then selected through an intensive three-month peer review, client evaluation and editorial process. You can view the entire list of National Finalists at our site: http://www.lawdragon.com/index.php/newdragon/ld_3000_10/

Should you have any questions about your selection, please let me know. From the National Finalists, we will select the Lawdragon 500 Leading Lawyers in America, which will be posted at lawdragon.com in the near future. This selection will be based on peer and client evaluation, as well as analysis of your recent significant legal achievements. The Lawdragon 500 and the National Finalists will also be featured in a print edition of our acclaimed magazine, which will be released in July.

No additional information is required from you to facilitate the selection of the Lawdragon 500. However, if you wish to send a reply email briefly noting your primary legal accomplishments of the past year, we will be happy to review that information.

Thank you for your time.

Katrina
